Bay Men Seek To Purchase Cal-Neva Resort

$750,000 Reported Involved
In Proposed Transfer Of Tahoe Resort

RENO—Reports current in San Francisco that Joseph Skoff and Harry Sherwood, bay city cafe owners, had completed a deal for the purchase of the Cal-Neva resort at Lake Tahoe, were denied here by James McKay, who with William J. Graham and Elmer "Bones" Remmer owns the internationally famed gambling place.

McKay said the San Franciscans have been negotiating for the purchase of the resort but the deal has not yet been completed.

The San Francisco reports indicate Skoff and Sherwood are to pay $750,000 for the Cal-Neva establishment. The present building was erected at a cost of $250,000 in 1937 after the original resort building was destroyed by fire.

The club building is bisected by the California-Nevada state line, which is marked on the floor by a painted line. Gambling is conducted on the Nevada side of the resort.

Particularly at this time of the year a warning against one of this region's most obnoxious pests seems timely. We refer to the transient peddler and his glib manners, who makes it a point to seek his livelihood where climatic conditions assure him the double benefit of enjoying a vacation while fleecing the populace. From now on until fall this vast vacation area will be infested with the common, garden variety satchel salesman, who, if you give him half an opportunity, will present his song and dance to the tune of your dollars. Advertising "rackets" are one of the most frequent practices of these unwelcome visitors and we caution you all to beware of the "golden opportunity and priceless advantages" to be obtained by the expenditure of your hard earned cash. By appealing to the vanity of most people these "super salesmen" can usually offer a most convincing story and make you feel that their commodity, if any, is different—that it is something you can't afford to pass up, and that never again will such an opportunity present itself. Just bear in mind that your local merchant can always be depended upon give you the best in the long run. You will find it pays to patronize the fellow you know and one you have trusted in the past and one you can trust in future transactions.

How Robert Kenny expects to get votes from the people of this district after his published opinion on the question of the ownership of the waters of beautiful Donner Lake puzzles us. The candidate against Governor Earl Warren for the governorship of California questioned the reasoning of members of both houses of the legislature when he declined to take action on their joint resolution asking for legal action to determine whether the historic lake belonged to the people of the state of California or if it should be controlled by the utility companies of the state of Nevada. In a long winded opinion the attorney general said: "Under the facts as developed we can not see how any legal proceeding which would accomplish anything beneficial for the State of California could be successfully prosecuted."

Plane Service To Tahoe Assured For Next Season

South State Financier Is Interested In Flying
To Tahoe

While it is considered too late for results this summer, the Lake Tahoe area next year may be served by an amphibious airplane service.

This was announced by Jake P. Obexer of Homewood who has a communication from the Hughes Aircraft Company of Culver City, owned by Howard Hughes, prominent air plane company official and motion picture producer, who is friend of Obexer.

The letter from John W. Meyer, general manager of the Hughes Company, indicated that the proposition of installing air service to Tahoe had been reported as unfavorable some time ago but that the writer believed the idea could be worked out.

In part the letter says: "Mr. Hughes has therefore requested me to tell you that air service will be operated into the Lake Tahoe area by TWA if it can possibly be arranged, as he will back your assertion it would be a good operation. However, Mr. Hughes does not believe the service could be put into operation this coming summer but it should be in operation for the season of 1947."

Because of the altitude and other factors, it was pointed out, specially designed passenger planes would be required but the operation would provide one of the best assets to the Tahoe region yet planned.

Obexer said he will continue to keep in touch with the Hughes Company and do what he can to promote the operation.

INFANTS MORTALITY DECLINES SHARPLY IN 40 YEAR PERIOD

SACRAMENTO, May 9 —(UP)—A baby born in California today has five times better chance of surviving his first year of life than he had 40 years ago, Dr. Wilton L. Halverson, state director of public health, reported this week.

In 1945, 32 of every 1,000 babies born alive died during their first year, he said.

In 1906 the infant death rate was 159 of each 1,000 live babies.

The director said about one-third of the first year casualties and about two-thirds of those dying within the first months were born prematurely.

Incorporated Cities Share In Two State Allocations

California's incorporated cities and the counties of the state this week received money from two state tax sources, "in lieu" tax and the alcoholic beverage tax.

The motor vehicle license or "in lieu" collection was being distributed on a population proportion basis by State Controller Thomas Kuchel and represented nine months accumulation as of March 31. Half the amount went to the counties and the rest to the cities. Nevada county receives $6,559.82 and the two cities, Grass Valley and Nevada City, got $3,198.24 between them.

Placer county's share was $9,561.97. Meanwhile, the state board of equalization announced that half of the alcoholic beverage license fees for the last six months of 1945 was ready for similar distribution. This fund is allocated according to the location of licensed premises. A total of $3,497.19 goes to Nevada county, with $1,822.12 earmarked for the "unincorporated area". The cities will administer their own shares of the fund.

Placer county's unincorporated area will bring $3,451.57 into the county coffers while the rest of the $6,650.32 will be shared by the cities therein.

Looking Ahead

NOTHING was ever more serious to the people of this continent, their children and their grandchildren, than the dispute between "Individualism" and "Collectivism." Those are the names that best describe them. The former may call themselves Democrats or Republicans. The latter may be Nazis, Communists, or Central Planners. Here, they are revolutionists.

Most of the people in America are not on either side; not yet. They haven't given the issues enough thought. That's the way with the American people, they keep out of all the arguments they can. They are busy with their own affairs and, if you interrupt them, you must state your business briefly. Unfortunately it is not possible to state these two creeds both briefly and clearly.

Serious PEOPLE of average Problem ability do not need to go to college and study a year in order to learn the difference. The problem is not that complicated. On the other hand, I can't cover the case in one newspaper column or in a letter of two or three pages. It's not that simple. Everybody owes it a little serious thought, however, before it is too late.

Although I imagine somebody will call me an alarmist, I'm duty bound as a loyal citizen to say: The American people will know all about this sooner or later. If they give the matter some thought and act quickly, they still may take their choice. Otherwise they will get Collectivism like it came to the unhappy peoples of other lands who are now starving by the hundreds every day.

Plainly HERE is a fair question: How can anybody identify destructive, alien, revolutionist movements at sight? They wear respectable names, shout for praiseworthy aims and have patriotic slogans. How can we pick them out? The best answer I have ever heard came from J. P. Seiberling when he spoke in Dallas, a few months ago. He said: Observe how they appeal to you!

When a philosophy appeals to human weaknesses it is destructive. Central Planning, for example, charms nobody but people who recognize themselves as weaklings. The offer of freedom from fear is an appeal to cowardice. Freedom from want (silly as it is) is only a bait to catch lazy people. Collectivism offers these, which mean mediocrity for everybody.

Individualism offers opportunity, a challenge; no soft stuff like security. Its rewards are for the energetic, not the lazy. Individualism offers personal liberty and individual freedom—freedom in expression, in business and in worship. These appeal to man's noble traits. Individualism offers these, with the highest standards of living for everybody the world has yet known.

Home, Farm Loans To Vets Declines In April

SACRAMENTO, May 9 —(UP)—During April farm and home purchases of veterans totaled $2,791,800, the state department of military and veterans affairs reported today.

During March the purchases exceeded $3,000,000.

So far 2,562 farm and home loans have been negotiated for California veterans of World War II, Lawrence C. Stevens, director of the department said. More than 50,000 applications for loans are on file.

Home loans will increase from $3,500 to $7,500 on May 21 as a result of a recent law passed during the special session of the legislature, and farm loans will go up to $13,500 from $12,500. On August 1 interest rates will drop from 4 to 3 per cent.

TAHOE LETTER To The Servicemen From SWANEE

Tahoe City, California.
May 5th, 1946

Dear Tahoeites—
This has been a beautiful Sunday and the warmest day I have noted this season. Daughters Marie and Jackie, little Bill and myself joined in enjoying our first real sunning on the lawn and beach today and it was actually hot. The lake was very placid and the sky and water a clear, lovely blue, with only a ghost of a breeze to keep the atmosphere comfortable. And at long last the daffodils and violas have started to bloom and the garden will soon be ablaze with spring flowers.

It is pleasant too to watch the fishing boats out on the blue water and to hear the put-put of kickers as the small craft weave back and forth across the lake seeking that lucky hole in which the "big ones" lie. The luck of local fishermen on the lake has been reported very good so far, although I have heard of no exceptionally large ones being brought in yet. Most catches run from three to five pounds, friend husband catching two five pounders on opening day, and a four and quarter pounds mackinaw the following day. He's down visiting his daughter, Mrs. Hugh Purcell at their lovely home, Four Pines, at Saratoga. Left on Friday night and will return the first of the week. It's his first trip down in many months and he was especially anxious to visit his son in law who is ill in a San Jose sanatorium.

Learned today that Donnie Prusso has arrived home. Got back to San Francisco from Okinawa on Saturday before Easter and was he happy to get back! He spent one day at home and then proceeded to camp for discharge. Expect he is home for good at this writing, and also suspect he will soon be on his way to Tahoe for a bit of long anticipated vacation.

The Henry Solls of Pine Lodge recently received another nice letter from daughter Alice, now living in

Travel Program Features Lake Tahoe

WITH TOURISTS AND VACATIONISTS free once again to take to the open road and travel as far as they wish, world-famous Lake Tahoe is expected to attract a record number of visitors this year. This picture of the lake is one of a series of twenty-five full-color photographs of scenic views of the West that Standard of California will distribute to remind travelers of the beauty spots they should include on their trips. The oil company plans to give away 20,000,000 copies of the photographs in its retail outlets.

Iceland. Alice wrote that spring was arriving in that distant land too and that the snow was gone. Said the winter was not nearly as extreme as some she has witnessed at Tahoe, the worst part of an Icelandic winter being the cold winds that almost blow the hair from one's head, especially along the coast.

Alice has been enjoying some riding again, now that winter is over, and is highly amused at the long hair the small ponies wear during the severe weather. Says they look almost like bears.

She had received a cablegram from Mrs. Pat Henry Griswold, now of Massachusetts, who is buying and sending a mattress for Alice and hubby, this particular luxury being nonexistent in Iceland. The beds of Alice's adopted country are very hard and no doubt healthful but she has at last given up trying to accustom herself to them and sent for a good old soft, cloud lined American Sealy. One of Alice's friends is now making a very beautiful pillow for Mrs. Solls as a gift. It will be unique when completed, as the yarn of which it is being made has been dyed from coloring matter obtained from various flowers which grow there and the embroidery work of Iceland is especially blended in the soft colors and in special Icelandic designs. Her mother's looking forward with real anticipation to this welcome and unusual gift.

Alice also touched briefly upon the subject of airbases in Iceland which we are told the U. S. government is attempting to lease for a period of 99 years. It seems to be a controversial issue there, with the majority of the Icelanders favoring American occupation to English, and all are afraid that unless they make up their minds soon there is a possibility of Russia stepping in and taking it. Russia definitely does not want America to lease it and yet the Conservative party, the strongest now in their parliament, dickers around and procrastinates without making a definite decision. While most Icelanders object to having any foreign power lease their airfields, it is believed America holds an edge on any of the others. It is being watched by all concerned with intense interest.

Was quite thrilled last week when there arrived in the mail not only several more grand letters from son Jimmie at Weisbaden, Germany, but also an excellent etching of him made in the Red Cross building by a "displaced" German as they are called over there. It is a most interesting study, well done, and must be pretty good as little grandson Billie recognized it as his Uncle Jimmie. He looks more grown-up than when he left home, and is beginning to show his 185 pounds. That's lots better than dropping a lot of poundage like so many boys did in wartime.

He and a buddy also have a new diversion now, going out to the Ebenheim Airbase not far distant where they know one of the crew chiefs of a Mustang fighter plane. They haven't been invited to ride yet but they are permitted to examine it from tip to tail and thereby acquire knowledge of these speedy ships. He's still hoping to be able to fly, even though the government program has been curtailed, and plans to spend all his idle hours out at the field from now on. Sends his best regards to all his friends at Tahoe.

Dick Carnell has had his bit of rest and is now learning the painting trade under his father's able supervision. Dick plans to buy a lot down the river and build himself a house, and is toying with the idea of also buying a car. His brother, Howard, surprised the family the other day by going out before breakfast and catching a nice 15 inch trout in the river.

Speaking of trout, most local anglers appear to be pleased with their luck so far, some in the river, some in the lake. Understand that Carl Bechdolt's refrigerator was stacked high with limits on opening day, one especially lucky party being the Edwards of Susanville, who were guests at Lake Chalets Motel. Marshal Lowell, Auburn attorney, who has been coming to Tahoe to fish for the past 46 years, was also among those bringing in limits from the lake. Opening day is also his birthday, and this year Rose Boyiaredes of Honeybunch Cafe, surprised him with a little birthday cake, lighted by a single candle, as he arrived to eat breakfast.

Mrs. William Lyman Griswold, Jr., the former Pat Henry, now living in Massachusetts, wrote her family here last week that he husband has made her a gift of a black Morgan mare, which will now make her fourth horse, and a Dalmatian pup, the same breed as Kay Starratt's pet she brought home from India.

Glad to report that Bert Watson is now able to walk about once more, his legs much improved, but he won't be able to work for a while yet.

Mrs. William Boorman, Girl Scout leader at Tahoe, again this week sends out an appeal for rugs and curtains for the scout hut in town which is being readied for summer activities. Anyone having any to spare will find them most welcome by this up and coming group of young ladies.

Can't ring off this Monday morning as I finish my weekly letter with out another word of the weather. The birds are singing, the lake remains calm and peaceful, the sun still shines but over the southerly mountains clouds are stealing, and the air is crisper than yesterday. It's still one of those days when it's grand to be alive.

Friend husband had a strange experience last week when our mother cat, Boots, proud owner of four wee kittens, caught a robin in the yard. She and grown son, Mittens, brought the fluttering bird into the garage and between them they started tearing off the frightened robin's lovely plumage. Pop came along just about that time and rescued her, almost nude, but uninjured. He smoothed what was left of her ruffled feathers and opened his hands. With a grateful chirp she flew away into a pine tree, one of the strangest sights the Tahoe forests have seen.

Members of the Women's Club of Tahoe on Wednesday last, May Day, were most gratified at the large attendance of Truckee members of the Wyethai Club who attended and enjoyed the affair. I want to take this opportunity to thank my chairman Mrs. Ila Martin, and her committees for the long and strenuous hours they spent in decorating and preparing for one of the loveliest parties ever held at Tahoe. Mrs. Dorothy Johanson and Mrs. Ruth Ables were responsible for the beautiful blue and gold floral decorations and arrangements, the flowers themselves having been brought up from the Sacramento home of Mrs. Johanson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zacharias, who spent Wednesday at the lake, the latter attending the luncheon as her daughter's guest. The dainty gold tablecloths and attractive flowered candleholders with their pale blue candles were designed and made by Mrs. Johanson and her assistants, and Miss Shirley Ables aided in making the little blue tallies with hand painted fawns on their covers. The menu was pleasing and colorful and the tasty repast was concocted by Mrs. Ida Simmonds and Mrs. Ila Martin. It was a lovely party and I extend my sincere thanks to all who aided in its success.

Leave off now for another week and pray this gorgeous weather continues right on. We've waited so long to enjoy it. Send along the best wishes of local Tahoeites and hope you boys still overseas aren't finding it too unpleasant in the postwar period. Good luck, good health and good cheer to one and all, and may God be with you today and always. As ever, SWANEE

MY PLACE in the SUN

by DOUG BARRETT

A copy of Harper's "New Monthly Magazine" came to light in Glendora dated June 1871. I am indebted to the Glendora Press-Gleaner for reprinting an account of a disaster of national interest—the destruction of Truckee by fire. The graphic account was as follows: "The town of Truckee in California, on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, was almost entirely destroyed by fire on March 29. One hundred and twenty buildings were burned, including all the business portion of the town and the Chinese quarter. An infant son of the proprietor of the Kennebec hotel perished in the flames. Truckee was the depot of a great lumber industry in the region of the Sierra Nevada."
Where were you that night, Dole?

DISA and DATA: Daryl Galennie waited a week before leaving on his vacation to be at the Legion installation... Mrs. Dick Hoskins is a very charming woman... among the town early risers are Postmaster Elizabeth Bavie, Constable Tom Dole and his sister, "Mike" Ackerson, who is commuting to school in Reno... Melva Leitch is back from her operation, looking tired but well... Tom Bonner smokes his segars pointed straight ahead... Steve Apin says he's off to bathe in Atlantic waters... Deputy Constable John Collier is really giving the citizens their money's worth as a night watchman... Vivian Gregory could use two more hands at the Sportland's ice cream bar... Gene Hardi at Loynd's talking about scientific poultry raising... the Frank Kearney and Barney Phipps ought to form a poultry breeders association
... the kids up at the high school are planning the biggest annual in history of the institution... Annie Kehm reports hubby Art is now a sergeant in the Philippines and is apt to visit Nippon before returning to her and son, Errol.

Fish and Game Building Program Being Curtailed

SACRAMENTO, May 9 —(UP)—The California fish and game commission reported today the civilian production administration has held up state fish hatchery building programs, but that rearing ponds and other projects still are under way.

Two Million Tiny Pines Planted in New Forest

SUSANVILLE, May 9 —(UP)—More than 2,000,000 pine trees will be planted this year to form part of the new Sierra Forest, it was revealed this week. The little pine trees were raised by the Durbin nursery of the U. S. Forest Service.

HIGHWAY PATROL INCREASE URGED AS WRECK CURB

SACRAMENTO, May 9 —(UP)—Edgar E. Lampton, state director of motor vehicles, today advocated better highway enforcement and more equipment for the state highway patrol as an answer to California's immediate accident death rate problem.

"It is time to stop starving the California highway patrol," he said. "It must be built into a really effective organization."

The motor vehicles director said the patrol needs 200 more cars and that many of the automobiles now being used are obsolete. He called motorcycles used by the patrol "man killers". The director said, "Dozens of our officers are on the injured list. Motorcycles cannot be used in rainy, foggy or windy weather. They are useless in apprehending drunken or drinking drivers, who cause about one half of all our accidents."

"The ideal system is sufficient automobiles to do the job and with two men in every car," he added, citing two-radio service and ambulances as other methods of saving lives.

Passenger fare to India on ships of the British East India company two centuries ago cost from $500 to $1,250, depending on rank.

BETTER ROADS SEEN AS ANSWER TO TOLL OF AUTO ACCIDENTS

SACRAMENTO, May 9 —(UP)—The solution to California's tremendous traffic problem and gross highway death rate is to provide adequate highways, according to C. H. Purcell, state director of public works.

He told a statewide conference of traffic experts, government officials and civic leaders called to Sacramento by Gov. Earl Warren that "our greatest and most expensive highway need today is for more room, more paved area on which motor vehicles can operate."

Stating 40 per cent of the accidents in the state occur at intersections, Purcell reported recent estimates compiled by the division of highways show more than one million dollars should be spent for signal installations.

About 60 per cent of the state's accidents occur along 1,600 miles of the highway system, the director said, adding that "these particular sections are all carrying more traffic than can be safely accommodated on two lanes."

Purcell said about 30 per cent of the accidents are head-on smash ups—another reason for multiple lane highways.

New acreage planted by grape growers in California during 1945 more than doubled that planted in 1944.

STATE EXAMS WILL FILL VACANCIES AT STATIONS ON LINES

SACRAMENTO—State civil service examinations to create a list of 75 eligibles from which Junior Entomologists and Plant Quarantine Inspectors can be appointed for work with the State Department of Agriculture will be held July 6 in several California localities.

Immediate appointments are being pending the results of the examination.

Further information concerning the examination may be obtained from the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, State Office Building No. 1, Sacramento. A copy of the examination announcement is on file at the office of the respective county agricultural commissioners.

The monthly starting salary is $200. Preference is given to veterans who file applications for preference with the Veterans Welfare Board.

Work is available at plant quarantine stations along the Oregon-California border at Smith River and Redwood Highway, near Crescent City; Dorris and Hornbrook, in Siskiyou county; Tulelake and Alturas, in Modoc county.

On the California-Nevada state line, work is available at the following stations: Peavine, Sierra county, 14 miles north of Reno; Truckee, Nevada county; Brockway, Placer county; Stateline, El Dorado county; Woodfords, Alpine county; Coleville, Mono county.

On the Arizona-California boundary, work is available at Yermo and Daguerre, San Bernardino County.

Applicants must be residents of California and must have resided in the state for one year prior to the date of the examination.

Copies of the examination announcement may be obtained by requesting them by mail from the State Personnel Board, Sacramento.

WAGER ODDS FAVOR WARREN IN BATTLE FOR EXECUTIVE JOB

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9 —(UP)—Wagering odds posted by both of northern California's principal betting commissioners gave Gov. Earl Warren a substantial lead over his Democratic opponent, Attorney General Robert W. Kenny.

Corbette, Inc., rated the incumbent governor a 10 to 6 favorite while Tom Kyne had odds of 2 to 1 on a Warren victory.

With the primaries four weeks away, betting odds favor Warren to capture the Republican nomination and Kenny the Democratic bid. But Kyne says there is wagering at even money that Warren's combined vote in both Republican and Democratic parties will exceed Kenny's combined vote.

STATE'S "ARMY" IS SEEKING VETS TO FILL ITS RANKS

SACRAMENTO, May 9 —(UP)—The adjutant general's office today was campaigning to encourage the entry of World War II veterans into the California national guard.

Col. Raymond E. Smith of the adjutant general's staff said veterans are needed to reactivate all ground force branches of units to be approved by the national guard bureau in Washington.

Officers and men with experience in the infantry, field artillery, mechanized cavalry, anti-aircraft artillery, ordnance and engineering branches are especially desired.

SAN FRANCISCO ANGLERS CATCH TROUT IN CITY

SAN FRANCISCO—Many California anglers travelled hundreds of miles for the opening of trout fishing season but some San Franciscans took a street car ride—and came back with two and three pound fish.

The trout were taken in Lake Merced, which is within the city limits and is flanked on two sides by miles of homes. The lake has long been a favorite spot for black bass fishermen and in recent years trout have also been planted.

Here are some examples of Lake Merced's productiveness on opening day:

Ross Marble, two rainbows weighing 1½ and 3¾ pounds; E. H. Conn, three rainbows weighing 1½ to 2½ pounds; J. H. Hallock, three rainbows weighing two pounds each; Frank Callahan, one eastern brook weighing 1¼ pounds.
